This plan complies with JCQ general regulations (section 5) in that:

The centre agrees to *“have in place a written examination contingency plan/examinations policy which covers all aspects of examination administration. This is an additional exam series which is added in this year to give fair chance to Summer 2020 candidates.

The centre is following the guidance updated by Department of Education on their website : <https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/responsibility-for-autumn-gcse-as-and-a-level-exam-series/public-health-arrangements-for-autumn-exams>

Where candidates are travelling to or within an area under local restrictions to take exams, they should refer to the local restrictions guidance.

Alternative sites

If on a short notice, the centre needs to book alternative site for the purpose of conducting exams, DfE exam support service can be contacted to try to find an additional venue.

When a new venue is identified, the centre will complete the JCQ's online alternative site arrangements form for GCSE, AS or A levels, or notify the appropriate awarding organisation for other qualifications, as soon as possible. This may be done, where necessary, the day before the exam, or in exceptional circumstances, on the day of the exam.

Candidates who miss exams in the autumn series

The minimum necessary assessments needed for special consideration to apply vary by qualification. For GCSE, AS and A levels, provided candidates have completed a minimum of 25% of the assessments in the subject, they will be awarded a grade by the exam boards if their application for special consideration is accepted by them.

GCSE, AS and A level exam in the autumn series cannot be rescheduled.

Centre will need to collect and keep contact information for candidates and invigilators so that you can share it with NHS Test and Trace if needed.

Arrival and departure of candidates

Candidates are advised to read the safer travel guidance before planning their journey to their exam.

Candidates will be instructed at the reception to follow social distancing rules, wear face coverings if they wish to and sanitise their hands, etc.

Candidates must be instructed to follow social distancing while leaving the exam room. The candidates will be asked to leave the premises using the exit gate in auditorium.

Exam rooms should be kept clean. Frequently touched surfaces (for example, door handles, individual desks) should be cleaned after every exam with the usual cleaning products, including the backs of chairs where candidates may pull chairs out to sit.

Set up of the exam room

Desks should face in one direction. For GCSE, AS and A level exam, the minimum distance in all directions from centre to centre of candidates' chairs must be 1.25 metres, following JCQ's Instructions for Conducting Examinations.

Private candidates or those returning to college to take exams, will be seated 2 metres apart from each other in the same room.

Desks should be correctly spaced.

The exam room are properly ventilated at the centre following the advice given Health and Safety Executive during Coronavirus pandemic.

Policy for Severe Disruption/Evacuation during External Examinations

Possible Causes

- Unreasonable noise disruption
- Fire/Bomb/Flood Alert during an Examination

1.Unreasonable noise disruption

In the event of a severe disruption in an externally set examination, invigilators are advised to stop the examination, tell the candidates to close their answer books, make a note of the time and summon help (Exams Officer/Head (Academic)/Second Master/Fire Officer/Main Office) to sort out the problem. Examination room conditions must be maintained.

When the disruption has been resolved the candidates can resume their examination and the time taken to resolve the issue added on at the end of the examinations. The candidates must be supervised at all times and thus the break in the examination can be regarded as ‘a supervised rest break’.

An incident log (Appendix 3) must be completed with the times of the disruptions noted. The Exams Officer to make Examining Bodies aware of the disruption if necessary.

2.Fire/Bomb/Flood Alert during an Examination

In the event of a fire alarm or bomb alert sounding (or any other emergency situation arising) during an examination, the first priority of the invigilators is to preserve life. The next priority is to ensure the security of the examination.

The invigilator should summon assistance, if there is time and it is appropriate, via the Exams officer who will confirm if immediate evacuation is necessary and the School Office who will call the reserve invigilator and notify the Second Master/Fire officer/Head (Academic). A decision will be made as to whether a full evacuation is necessary.

If the emergency is over quickly, the candidates should resume the examination. A careful note of the time of resumption must be noted and the full time allocated for the examination given to complete the examination, ignoring the interruption.

An incident log (Appendix 3) must be completed with the times of the disruptions noted. and a special consideration form will be filled in so as not to disadvantage the candidates.

Procedure for Emergency Evacuation from an Examination

If it is necessary to evacuate the building, the lead invigilator should then stop the examination taking a note of the time and evacuate the building by row and in silence. The candidates must leave all examination papers, scripts and writing equipment behind, and in accordance with the school emergency evacuation procedures. The candidates should remain supervised and in silence throughout the emergency. Several other members of staff will be needed to help police this.

In the event of an emergency requiring candidates to evacuate buildings during an examination the following area should be used but the candidates must be kept at a distance and in silence from the main body of pupils who will be mustering at the same emergency evacuation point.

For HIC the emergency evacuation point assembly area is the Corner Parade (towards the right of the college)

At all times invigilators must act in accordance with section 16 of the 'Instructions for conducting examination' booklet. They should also summon assistance immediately an emergency arises. Silence should be maintained during the time the candidates are outside the examination room. Section 16 of 'Instructions for conducting examination' booklet states:

The invigilator must take the following action in an emergency such as a fire alarm or a bomb alert.

- Stop the candidates from writing.
- Collect the attendance register and evacuate the examination room in line with the instructions given by the appropriate authority.
- Advise candidates to leave all question papers and scripts in the examination room
- Candidates should leave the room in silence.
- Make sure that the candidates are supervised as closely as possible while they are out of the examination room to make sure there is no discussion about the examination. Make a note of the time of the interruption and how long it lasted.
- Allow the candidates the full working time set for the examination.
- If there are only a few candidates, consider the possibility of taking the candidates (with question papers and scripts) to another place to finish the examination.
- Make a full report of the incident and the action taken (Appendix 3), and send to the relevant awarding body.
